~EDITORIAL~

What a glorious day for football and what reversals were served up for the patrons of the W.A.F.A. last Sunday when we saw the three home sides annihilate their opposition and score clean cut victories.

Wanneroo surprised even their most loyal supporters with the ease with which they took Midland apart.

Metropolitan continued on their improvement path to completely demoralise Scarborough at the W.A.C.A.

At Garrett Road at half time when the teams were only separated by five points the stage appeared to be set for a great finish but the Redlegs really turned on the pressure football and ran out impressive winners over the Saints. And now what about today?

Can improving Metropolitan topple the cocky Magpies from the perch? Can Midland snap back into their allconquering mood or will the Royals match their first success?

And we see the Saints, dissapointing at Bayswater, journey to Scarborough to tackle old rivals from last years grand final.

My selections are Metropolitan, Midland and Osborne Park.

Whatever the result of the weeks to come we hope that all concerned with this years competition whether player, official or supporter, are able to enjoy the great game of "Footy".

SCARBOROUGH

Well how does one start? Scarborough last Sunday gave their supporters easily there most dismal performance for the last five years and the exhibition which they displayed was nothing short of utter embarrassment. Playing against a very ordinary side they made them look like champions.

Chairman of Selectors Mick Marinko was quoted after the game as saying "that the only satisfaction he derived from the encounter was that they could not possibly play as badly again".

Diminutive Rover Graham Brown, who in an endeavour to spark some life into his team, gave a lion-hearted display for the whole 120 minutes and it was a great pity that his seventeen teammates around the ground did not take a leaf out of his book.

Coach Bob Annesley, was a very dejected figure after the game and he now has the inevitable task of trying to remould the present eighteen or alternatively using a sharp AXE and relegating the deadwood to the lower division.

The reserves side showed a lot of pluck in their last quarter fight back in what looked like a preliminary to the Golden Gloves and by only going under by five points showed that they could develop into a close knit team by the end of the season.

Chris Bell was a hard hitting half-back and in the weeks to come will no doubt fight his way into the senior side. Rod Doune also showed his first glimpse of form and should this continue would also come into calculations.

WANNEROO

After a long battle for a number of years, Wanneroo has at last emerged as a force to be reckoned with in the W.A. Football Association. Last Sunday against spirited opposition from Midland, Wanneroo showed heart, determination and the will to win, as it has not done in previous seasons. Charlie Chircop turned in a beauty kicking 8 goals, while roving to a winning ruck, led by Jack Maddern and Trevor Litterick. At the centre Joe Fanchi showed his class with many fine marks and play on tactics. Also, although under great pressure early, Wanneroo's half back line became supreme as the game progressed with C. Johnson, T. Robinson and S. Broome playing well. Others showing out were J. Misvilis, M. Horrocks and G. Spivey.

Final Scores: 16 - 6 to 7 - 18.

Goals: Chircop 8, Fanchi 3, Spivey 2.

The Seconds, after a great win against Inglewood, could not find touch against Midland last Sunday. Although some players tried hard, many others did not appear to give a 100% effort necessary to win games. Tom Hall ruck strongly all day, ably supported by George Stoutis and rover Phill Scott.

Final Scores: 12 - 8 to 8 - 7.

Goals: T. Hall 2, K.Watt 2.

OSBORNE PARK

Once again we failed at Bayswater Oval but full marks to the home side who soon discovered our weakness on the day! A very brittle defence which must be strengthened if we are to win games! Seconds won their first game and it was pleasing to see many new faces being named among the best players.

CLUB RANKINGS:

League: Richards, Ayre, Johnson, Pratt, Smith, West.

Goalscorers: Ayre 7, Johnson 2.

Craven "A" Mark: Pettit.

Seconds: Garcia, Holm, Farcich, Willesee, McGuckin.

Goalscorers: Garcia 2.

Craven "A" Mark: Walters.

PERSONAL PARS: Well known Committeeman Robert Mitchell still seems a little up in the air after returning recently from his trip to America but his personality was in no ways dimmed and believe me, he held his own against the best in Texas.

SOCIAL NOTES: Today the lady helpers and supporters will have home made cakes for sale at the refreshment kiosk - be early.

To keep within touch of the leaders today's games are a must. We have still yet this season to win our first double, so let's make it today - Mothers Day.

Scarborough players and supporters are invited to stay with us after for the usual happy get together.

INGLEWOOD

It was a disappointing day for the Inglewood Club last Sunday week against Wanneroo, when both the League and Seconds were defeated by teams which played more determined football than we did. The only pleasing feature about the league game, was the first quarter, when the side outplayed Wanneroo, by playing together as a team for the first time this season. Another effort like this, but sustained for the full 100 minutes of the game and we should see a badly-needed win.

Best Players: Ross Fogarty, Colin Hall, and Kim Williamson.

Goal Scorers: B.Dedman 3, K.Williamson 2.

The Seconds side, seemingly in an unbeatable position at three quarter time, showed a complete lack of concentration in the last quarter, and paid the penalty by being defeated by three points.

Best Players: John Doyle, Mal Stewart and Terry Walsh.

Today we meet Midland in what will be a tough encounter, but with a maximum effort from every player for a full 100 minutes a win would be a rich reward. How about it chaps. Midland are invited to stay with us after the game for a pleasant Sunday nights entertainment. Inglewood Club Players and Members are reminded the Membership fees are due by the 30th June.
